Lauber and Lehman Leaving City Posts, But Staying, Too

by James Giese

City employees and officials wished two veteran employees well as they began new careers as senior citizens and retirees, at a picnic lunch on June 15. At least City Clerk Dorothy Lauber and Recreation Office Manager Betty Lehman are sort of retiring. While their official retirement date is June 30, both have agreed to stay on a little longer as temporary employees to help out the city. Dorothy will see to it that next November's city elections come off smoothly, while Betty will work through the busy, busy summer program season.

Mayor Antoinette Bram and City Manager Daniel Hobbs presented a variety of gifts to the two employees at a brief ceremony held at the picnic shelter at Schrom Hills Park. Bram presented Lauber with a city pin for 20 years of service and Lehman with a 25-year pin. Hobbs presented close-out checks for unused annual leave, as well as a portion of accumulated sick leave each had earned.

At the last council meeting, Lauber had also been presented with an extra-large knit shirt decorated with the city logo, which she wore for the occasion. At the picnic she also received two more shirts, in her own size this time, and a jacket. Lehman received a new typewriter. Each received a hydrangea plant from the Public Works Department.

"These two folks are the kind of people I'm looking for when I hire new classified employees," Hobbs told the assembled group referring to the standards of excellence which the two had set in their city careers.

In response to her recognition, Lauber declared that serving a municipality is one of the most rewarding professional jobs a person can have. "You can see what is being accomplished," she said.

County councilmember Audrey Scott presented resolutions from the county council to the two retirees. Noting her previous service as a mayor, Scott said, "I appreciate and understand that elected officials take credit for all the work that staff does. Municipal staff are some of the most dedicated and hard working persons holding public positions."

Careers with the City

Lehman began work with the city in 1962 as a part time secretary in the Recreation department. As the city grew and the department expanded, she assumed increasingly greater responsibilities for managing the department's office and its office staff. For a few years, however, Lehman was lured away by former Recreation Director Richard Stevenson, to work in the recreation office of another model planned community. But she came to realize that the original was the best and returned to welcoming open arms.

Lauber, who had held a number of responsible secretarial positions in private business, became Secretary to the city Manager when Doris Cottingham earlier retired. In 1991 Lauber became City Clerk upon the retirement of Gudrun Mills.

City Begins Recycling Collection Program

The city has hired a private contractor to collect recyclables from all detached homes and townhouses in the city. The new program is voluntary for those sub-divisions and other areas that have their own collection systems in place.

Under the new collection system, residents will be able to recycle magazines, catalogs, junk mail, phone books, computer paper, cardboard, paperboard, and newspapers. Existing recycling bins will be used and left at their normal curbside place for most residences and at the normal place near the door for GHI townhouses. Newspapers, paper and cardboard may be bundled and left next to the recycling bin. Plastic bags must not be included. The recycling bin and other recyclable materials should be left visible to the collector by 7 a.m. on the mornings when collection normally occurs.

BARC Hearing

An update of the Beltsville Agricultural Research Center's Master Plan will be held on Thursday, July 13 at 7 p.m. The presentation will take place in the BARC-West Auditorium Building 003 (Clock Tower Building), 10300 Baltimore Avenue, Route 1, in Beltsville. The public is encouraged to attend.

Jazzy Sidewalk Sale At Greenway Center

On Friday, Saturday and Sunday, July 7 - 9, bargains will line the sidewalk from the more than 30 Greenway Center stores. For example, Linens 'n Things will feature sales on sheets, towels, and comforters; Kemp Mill Music will offer Jazz CDs and cassettes at special prices; the Curiosity Shoppe will offer a variety of gift items at 50% off.

On Saturday, from noon to 2 p.m., children can jump in the Super Moon Bounce, enjoy magic tricks and take home balloon sculptures by "Ralph the Great", and meet two pitchers from the Bowie Baysox baseball team. Professional models will stroll the sidewalk showing the summer's hottest fashions from Dress Barn, Christie's Fashions, Hit or Miss, and Casual Male Big & Tall.

All weekend, customers can enter to win four tickets to see jazz artist, "Pat Metheny", at Wolf Trap. The evening includes dinner and limousine transportation. Entry forms will be available in participating stores, July 4 through July 10.

Greenway Center is located in Greenbelt East at the intersection of the Baltimore Washington Parkway and Greenbelt Road. For more information call (202) 736-2813.

Both retirees will join their retired husbands—David Lehman and Robert Lauber. All look forward to traveling. The News Review looks forward to Lauber's promise to resume her volunteer assistance, which she had to discontinue when she became the City Clerk.

Greenbelt East Development Projects on Council Agenda

by Elaine Skolnik

Two presentations dealing with development proposals in Greenbelt East are on next Monday's city council agenda. James Herl, contract purchaser (along with Daniel Colton) of a five-acre tract north east of the intersection of Hanover Parkway and Ora Glen Drive, will present modified plans for a one-story restaurant park on the site. He will also represent the owners of the Greenway Villas, who have submitted a concept plan for the 10-acre property, formerly known as the Sunrise Tract, which is located at the end of Hanover Drive adjacent to the Holiday Inn.

The city's Advisory Planning Board (APB) will submit its recommendations on the restaurant proposals at Monday's meeting. (Council has already received APB's recommendations on the Greenway Villas.)

Herl told the News Review that he has "letters of intent" from three restaurant chains - The Outback Steakhouse, Appelby's and Fudrucker's. In an effort to allay concerns of adjacent Windsor Green homeowners, Herl said the buffer between the townhouses will be increased. The landscaping will include berms and trees, he said.

The tract, known as Smith-Ewing Lot II, is zoned Commercial Shopping Center, which also permits high-rise, hotels and office buildings. (Both have been proposed in the past.) However, the developer would need city council approval to revise covenants on the site, which limit the type of development permitted there, before the proposed restaurants could be constructed.

Greenway Villas

Concept plans for the subdivision and development of the Greenway Villas property call for a combined condominium apartment/senior citizen housing project.

The Advisory Planning Board had recommended that the "City Council approve the concept for the condominium apartment proposal, subject to the condition that the project meets all zoning requirements, particularly those for parking and green space." APB opposed the senior citizen housing project, "unless it is revised to meet zoning requirements."

Herl said he will address APBs concerns about parking and green space for the Greenway Villas. He added that the number of units in the multiple three and four story buildings have been scaled down. The senior citizen section of the development will have 98 units instead of the original 118 and the number of condominium apartments has been reduced from 116 to 100. Owners of the tract are Charles Shapiro and Bruce Jaffe.

Cancer Treatment Center Opening Activities Planned

Doctors Community Hospital and Oncology Services Corporation will host grand opening activities of the new Greenbelt Cancer Treatment Center on Wednesday, July 12 at 4 p.m. This radiation therapy facility, located at 7501 Greenway Center Drive, was built in response to the rise in the incidence of cancer among the population.

Currently studies indicate that the rate of cancer in Maryland, particularly among Prince Georges County residents, is one of the highest in the nation. This state-of-the-art treatment center will provide quality cancer care close to home.

The Greenbelt Cancer Treatment Center will provide radiation therapy services by means of a "linear accelerator", an advanced piece of equipment that provides cancer patients with the latest form of such therapy. By working with Doctors Community Hospital, the Center will also provide residents with expanded cancer prevention and education programs, early detection opportunities, coordinated patient treatment, and free van transportation for all radiation therapy patients.

Director Named

The Center will be managed daily by Dr. Sultan Ahmed, a board-certified radiation oncologist trained in treating cancers using radiation technology. Born and raised in Pakistan, he served as the Clinical Research Fellow for the Department of Radiation Therapy at Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center and later as Director of Radiation Oncology at Nassau County Medical Center. He was also Assistant Professor of Radiology at the State University of New York.

Special Features

Special features of the Center program include support groups for patients and families and nutritional counseling. It has been developed by Oncology Services Corporation, Inc., (OSC) which specializes in community-based cancer therapy. Headquartered in State College, Pennsylvania, it has developed 34 centers in nine states. OSC is the largest provider of radiation therapy in the United States. Doctors Community Hospital is an independent, not-for-profit community hospital established in October, 1990.

Letters to the Editor

Safety Records

Mosquito-borne diseases are still prevalent in Maryland and have been found every year in trapped mosquitoes from communities near Greenbelt. The Maryland Department of Agriculture mosquito control program used in Greenbelt follows guidelines set by the Center for Disease Control and the World Health Organization. The two insecticides used have excellent safety records throughout the United States and are registered with the Environmental Protection Agency.

Malathion at the mosquito control rate is not harmful to birds or fish. It kills adult mosquitoes and similar night flying insects, but not birds, toads, crickets, ground beetles, etc. It has been used and monitored in Maryland for more than thirty-eight years and does not translocate in the soil, is not considered a threat to groundwater, and is not classified as carcinogenic by the EPA, the National Cancer Institute, or the National Toxicology Program of the U.S. Public Health Service. Permethrin is a synthetic of natural plant pyrethrum and is applied with small hand-held sprayers as a spot treatment for areas with very high infestation. The Governor's Pesticide Council reviewed and supports the Maryland mosquito control program.

Public Works tending of Greenbelt's parks, lawns, trees, shrubbery, and landscaping is done with concern for human safety and protection of our environment. Workers who use chemical agents are State-tested and certified in proper use. The City Horticulturist allows use of only certain fertilizers by the Horticultural Services Crew and the Parks crew.

The City does not use fertilizers with incorporated herbicides and does not use fertilizers with incorporated insecticides. Residents can be reassured of the City's concern for their safety and the protection of our environment.

Great Class!

Last September I took advantage of an opportunity of a lifetime -- I attended the Greenbelt Police Citizen's Academy. Classes lasted 12 weeks, and they kept my attention riveted. After pulling an eight-hour shift, the instructors in this course give up their valuable free time. That's true dedication!

After attending the Academy, I saw way beyond the green and white cars, the badges on a uniform or a shiny new building. I saw a group of dedicated professionals concerned with law enforcement, order and public protection.

One of many highlights during the course was meeting "Gus". He is Greenbelt's narcotic dog. His expertise in finding hidden drugs in a very short time was demonstrated in class. Pfc Mike Lanier is his trainer/handler. They have won national recognition. Their many trophies are proudly displayed at the station. What a team!

I'd like to extend an exuberant "thank you" to Chief James Craze for giving citizens an opportunity to become a part of such a wonderful experience. Also, my appreciation to the following instructors: Lt. John Lann (Coordinator-instructor), Sgt. Jim Parker, Lt. Mike Craddock, Cpl. Carolyn Breck, Pfc. Tom Moreland, Det./Sgt. Doug Sappington, Det./Cpl. Cody Carr, Cpl. Marie Arthur, Pfc. Marty Parker, Pfc. Steve Keller, Pfc. George Mathews, Cpl. Carl Schinner, Pfc. John Rogers, Pfc. Mike Lanier, and of course, Gus! Let's not forget a great supporting staff of many role players who helped make this all possible!

Sadly, the classes came to an end on December 20. I truly miss the classes and the fellowships that developed between the officers and the classmates.

The class has given me a better understanding of the dedication and loyalty to the citizens and also to the dangers that every police officer must go through daily to protect us. I encourage each and every citizen to come out and take full advantage of such a rewarding experience.

Juanita J. Wilmer

Thanks

We wish to thank all of Greenbelt, friends and neighbors, Greenbelt Lions Club and Prince Georges Hospice for helping us through the difficult time during our mother's passing. She always had a kind word to say and loved the children.

Splendid Job!

Greenbelt is bathing in a wealth of blooming flowers, and I want to commend horticulturist Bill Phelan and his crew for the splendid job they are doing! For example: Have you noticed the joyful display of colors in front of the Post Office or the deep bluish coloring of the flower beds near the entrance to the Police Station? Go, take a look: it will make your day.

Health Clubs Register With State Office

The Maryland Attorney General's office released a list of health clubs, weight loss centers and self-defense schools that have legally registered with the Consumer Protection Division and are qualified to do business in this state.

All Maryland health clubs are required to register before they begin selling memberships, under the state's health club law. The law also prohibits businesses from collecting initiation fees of more than $200, or more than three month's advance payment, unless they posted a bond. Non-profit health clubs such as the YMCA are exempt from the registration and bonding requirements of the health club law.

Since the health club law was enacted in 1982, more than $898,000 has been returned to more than 9,700 consumers. More than $6.6 million has been posted in bonds or other security to protect the advance payments of consumers.

The following Greenbelt health clubs and self defense schools have registered as of June 21: Greenbelt Marriott, 6400 Ivy Lane; Holiday Spa, 7415 Greenbelt Road; Dennis Brown Shaolin Wu-Shu Academy, 6000 Greenbelt Road.

Shade Gardening

Join Diane Lewis of Brookside Gardens, for a slide presentation featuring the shady garden through the four seasons. Diane will begin with the early spring bulbs and wildflowers and continue with perennials, annuals and woody plants that can be grown in the shade. She will conclude with plant materials for fall and winter interest.

The program will be held in the Administration Building Classroom of the National Arboretum on Wednesday, July 12, at 10:30 a.m.

Swim Team News

by Amanda Baldauf & Christine Maher

July 1 was yet another victorious day for the Greenbelt Swim Team. We defeated West Laurel with a final score of Greenbelt 290, West Laurel 249, bringing our record to 2-0.

Many of our swimmers were great contributors to our success. Triple winners were Katie Hilton, William Kim, Jill Lau, Katrina Schwartz, and Marcella Smid. High point winners were Amanda Baldauf, Ryan and David Hardy, and Aruna Inversin; 11 points, and Fernando and Alexandre Freire da Silva, and Angela Logan with 10 points.

William Kim also set an 8 & under team and pool record in backstroke. Many of the 8 and under swimmers contributed points to the success of this meet.

Wednesday, July 5, the Greenbelt Swim Team will be participating in the New Carrollton Relay Meet. Even though this meet is not scored, it will be a great opportunity for swimmers to practice relay swimming and have a great time!

On Saturday, July 8, we are going to have another home meet against our toughest competitor in Division A, Strathmore Bel Pre from Silver Spring. The meet starts at 8:30 a.m. and spectators are welcome to attend and cheer us on.

On Sunday, July 9, the swim team is having a yard sale and car wash in front of the pool starting at 9 a.m. The car wash is pay-by-donation, and the yard sale is going to have really good merchandise!

I (Amanda) had an extremely rewarding experience last week while drying my hair in the locker room. A woman I had never met before told me how glad she was that Christine and I were writing this article and keeping the community involved. I glowed all day because of that comment. Thank you!

Mae Gingell

Mae Elizabeth Gingell, 63, who died June 27 of complications of colon cancer, spent 37 years touching the lives of young and old in Greenbelt.

Born in Washington, D.C. and raised in Edmonston, Mae came to Greenbelt as a single woman in 1956. She later married and moved away, but she came back in 1959, where by herself she raised four children: Ron, Karen, Steve and Penny.

Involved in Little League with her son Ronnie, she was always at every game, keeping score, lining up the players and even keeping the field in good condition. She treasured a trench coat given her as a gift at one Little League banquet.

She also became active in the Boys and Girls Club football activities (and cheer-leading with Karen) as well as in the softball league with son Steve and her "adopted" sons on the team. Again, never missing a game.

Active in Greenbelt Center School PTA, she was president in the early '70s and held other offices. If someone casually mentioned a desire to volunteer, Mae would look that person steadily in the eyes and promise a follow-up job -- no ready hands got away.

For 23 years she worked at Center School, first as a volunteer and then as aide in the Hearing Impaired program, and later the Chapter One program, where she taught many children to read. She was known to have a good-sized lap and a ready ear for children who needed hugs and a friend, as well as practical help. She said all these children "kept her going."

The strength she seemed to gain from working with children helped her during the long years of daughter Penny's struggle with cystic fibrosis. And her own children responded to their mother's example of courage and selflessness by pitching in to help their sister, especially during the too-many-to-count stays at Children's Hospital. Karen quit high school to help her mother, and no one ever heard Mae complain. Penny died in January, 1982 at age 19.

Mae also worked at the Greenbelt pool, and later at the Greenbelt Aquatic and Fitness Center for 10 years. She enjoyed her neighbors and her garden. In the early years there were always children crowding the back yard, usually playing ball. In later years granddaughter

Greenbriar Hosts ACS Swimathon

The American Cancer Society, Prince Georges County Unit, invites swimmers of all ages to join the fight against cancer and take part in Greenbriar's "Swimathon to Conquer Cancer". Swimmers complete as many laps as possible over a four-hour period and get pledges from friends, family and the community based on the number of laps they finish. The funds raised will support cancer research, programs and patient services.

Greenbriar's Swimathon includes prizes, entertainment, refreshments, children's activities and games and will be held on Saturday, July 22 from noon to 4 p.m. at the Greenbriar Pool.

For information call Linda Evans at 441-1096.

Penny (Karen's child) helped her line the yards with flowers.

Mowatt Memorial Church was filled for Mae's funeral, and numerous people rose to testify about how she touched their lives. She was laid to rest in Greenbelt Cemetery.

One quote on a card accompanying flowers said this: "You watched us grow, always giving us love and respect. Now we can take what you've shown us and let it grow within us." This from former (now-women) lifeguards she watched grow.

She also leaves a brother, Walter Rowzee, of Manchester, NH, sister-in-law Jean Rowzee, nieces, Kristin and Colleen and nephew Jason.

Those wishing to remember Mae Gingell may contact Greenbelt Elementary School, the City Recreation Department or the Boys and Girl Club.

Nellie Goldberg

Nellie Goldberg, 85 died at the Greenbelt Nursing Center on Friday, June 30, after a long illness. Born in Montreal, Canada, she came to Greenbelt in 1989 to live with her son, Sheldon, in Windsor Green.

She worked for a number of companies in New York until she developed a serious illness in 1963. She was also involved with Mizrahi and the local Democratic party. The Goldbergs retired to Miami Beach in 1972.

When illness returned in 1989, she came to Greenbelt. Her husband died in 1992. In Greenbelt, Mrs. Goldberg enrolled in senior citizen education courses, joined the Golden Age Club and the Miskan Torah Sisterhood, and participated in another group at Nevev Sholem in Bowie. Greenbelt CARES

Judye Hering met recently with James Blue, Executive Director of Port Hope Family and Youth Development Services, a non-profit, residential living program that teaches youth independent living skills. Discussed was CARES' vocational/educational services assistance to Port Hope residents.

An average of 23 families participated in regular, scheduled counseling for the month of June. Fifty individuals were involved, 42% of them children and youth under 18 years of age. Weekly tutoring sessions were held in a wide variety of subjects including math, history and the sciences. Seventy-nine students

Holy Cross Bible School Studies Life in 29 A.D.

Over 120 children from Greenbelt and the surrounding areas participated in the Marketplace 29 A.D. Vacation Bible School program during the week of June 18 at Holy Cross Lutheran Church. Participants were transported back in time to the busy marketplace where Jesus and his disciples mingled with the people. Children and leaders donned biblical togas and headpieces to add to the authenticity. The children were divided into the Tribes of Israel and, along with their tribal mother, learned each day about the different jobs the people of Jesus' time performed. They visited craftsmen's shops and learned the arts of rope making, pottery, metal working, stone carving, jewelry making and scroll writing.

Each day the children visited the marketplace "well" to have a cool drink of water. While there, they watched teenagers, acting as Jesus and his followers, portray events that happened during Jesus' life on earth. The children were also able to try out many kinds of breads and fruits Jesus and his followers might have eaten. Each day they visited the storyteller in her tent to hear her tell them Bible stories.

The children also helped to raise money to benefit a newly formed Lutheran Hispanic Mission. As teams they brought in pennies and change each day to see which team, the boys or the girls, could bring in the most pennies. They raised $539 to donate to the mission. They said they wanted "to help other kids learn about Jesus."

These three pin-up cuties, daughters of Greenbelt men in service during World War II, were featured in the January, 1945 Greenbelt Cooperator. None of the fathers, all overseas, had ever seen their daughters at that time. The photographs had been taken by a local photographer Dick Kelsey.

50 Years Ago Free Baby Pictures

by James Giese

January, 1945—Three Greenbelt lassies got their pictures in the Greenbelt Cooperator and sent to their fathers in service as a result of a special offer made by local photographer Dick Kelsey. Kelsey offered to provide pin-up photos and wallet size prints free of charge to any Greenbelt father who had not seen his baby. Miss Joy Herde, 14 month old daughter of Pfc and Mrs. Byron Herde of 61-F Ridge, qualified and posed with her mother. Private Herde was taken prisoner by the Germans in the summer of 1944. In a recent letter he reported that he was well but bored.

Another pin-up was nine month old Shirley Taylor, of 5-G Ridge Road, daughter of Carpenters Mate & Mervin Taylor. Shirley's dad had recently received the Presidential Unit Citation and the Purple Heart for wounds received while serving in the 4th Division of the Sea Bees in the South Pacific. He was now on Tinian Island.

The last of the three, already walking at only nine months, was Dorothy Colleen Dwyer of 51-H Ridge. Her father, whom she had never met, was Seaman 1/c George Dwyer also stationed in the South Pacific.

POLICE BLOTTER

Based on Information
Released by the Greenbelt
Police Department

A woman residing on Lakecrest Circle reported that two men came to the door claiming to be with the water company and needing to check the water in her house. While one suspect engaged the victim in conversation, the second suspect went to the basement. They then left the scene. A short time later the victim discovered that her purse had been placed inside a closet and the money had been removed. The suspects are described as: 1) a white male in his 30s, 5'10" and 230 pounds; 2) a white male in his 30s, 5'7" and 180 pounds. The vehicle was described as a black truck.

An officer on foot patrol in Greenway Shopping Center on Friday, June 23, observed a vehicle parked in the fire lane with one occupant in the back seat. This person then climbed into the front seat and drove the vehicle to a remote area of the lot. As the officer entered the store by which the car had parked, two men left, got into the suspect car and drove away. A short time later, the vehicle was stopped by a second officer while traveling south on the Baltimore/Washington Parkway. An investigation revealed the suspects were in possession of merchandise stolen from several stores in Greenway Center. One suspect was also found to be in possession of a pipe commonly used to smoke "crack" cocaine.

A 44-year-old non-resident male was arrested and charged with two counts of theft, possession of paraphernalia, and driving on a suspended license. The second suspect, a 28-year old non-resident male, was arrested and charged with two counts of theft. Both suspects were released on citation pending trial.

Reward

The Greenbelt City Police Department is offering a reward of up to $500 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of person(s) responsible for any of the unsolved crimes as reported in Criminal Investigations in the Police Blotter in the Greenbelt News Review. Contact 507-6530. All information is confidential.

Officers responded to a report of domestic violence on Tuesday, June 27, in the 9300 block of Edmonston Road. The victim stated she had been slapped in the face by her boyfriend during a domestic dispute. The suspect, a 21-year-old resident male, was arrested and charged with battery. He appeared before a District Court Commissioner and was held on $1,500 bond.

A 34-year-old non-resident male was arrested, charged with driving under the influence of drugs on Friday, June 23, and released on citation pending trial. The arrest resulted from a motor vehicle accident in the area of Greenbelt Road and Kenilworth Avenue.

Thefts

The theft of a purse was reported on Sunday, June 25, at the Greenbelt Nursing Home, 7010 Greenbelt Road. A witness observed the suspect go behind a desk, remove the purse, place it in a bag and flee the building. The suspect is described as a black male, approximately 20 years old, with a mustache. He was wearing a black t-shirt, and black or blue jeans.

Burglars forced open the front door of a residence in the 7800 block of Mandan Road. An electronic game was taken.

A burglary was reported on Sunday, June 25 at a residence in the 6100 block of Breezewood Drive. Entry appeared to have been made by forcing open the front door. A television, VCR and compact disc player were taken.

A residence in the 5900 block of Cherrywood Terrace was reported burglarized on Monday June 26. The patio door was forced open. Home electronic equipment and jewelry were taken.

A VCR, 35 mm camera and a lap top computer were taken in a burglary reported on Thursday, June 29. The front door of a residence in the 9100 block of Edmonston Terrace was suspected to have been forced open.

Also on Thursday, a purse was reported stolen from an unsecured desk at an office suite in the 6400 block of Ivy Lane.

A laser jet printer was reported taken from an office in the 7500 block of Greenway Center Drive on Wednesday, June 27.

On Thursday, June 22, building materials were reported taken from a construction site in the 6500 block of Springcrest.

MD Tax Break For Deduction

Anyone who filed the state income tax return but without indicating a deduction can still amend the return to obtain a tax break. Under Maryland law, taxpayers have up to three years to file an amended return from the date of the original tax return.

The Maryland Comptroller's Office will even complete the amended return free of charge. Taxpayers who choose to amend a state tax return should do so after receiving their refund if one is due for the current filing.

Senior citizens who have not taken advantage of the pension exclusion benefit on new Form 502PE and working families who have not claimed the earned income credit, can both still take advantage of these benefits retroactively by filing an amended return using Form 502X.

Form 502X is available at any of the Comptroller's 19 taxpayer service offices located across the state.

For amending 1992 tax returns, use Form 502X on or before April 15, 1996.

The statewide toll-free number for free Maryland income tax assistance is 1-800-MD-TAXES.

Bonsai Demonstration

A basic demonstration of styling and potting bonsai will be given by a knowledgeable bonsai enthusiast in the Yoshimura Center in the Bonsai and Penjing Museum of the U.S. National Arboretum on Sundays, July 9 and 23 at 1:30 p.m.

City Notes

In the week ending June 30, the Greenbelt Public Works Department looked towards the upcoming week and the big, bang-up Independence Day celebration at Greenbelt Park. It made certain that all its equipment was ready to go for the massive fireworks display. For the viewers, the Department added gravel on the lake path to eliminate ruts and mud wallows.

Twelve police vehicles were recalled by the manufacturer for parts replacement. Instead of the city transporting the vehicles one-by-one to the dealer and waiting for the work to be done, arrangements were made to get the replacement parts at no cost, and the installations were made at the city garage by city mechanics.

Yes, it may be summer, but the department is thinking snow. During the week, snow removal equipment was inspected to determine the need for repairs and to order replacement parts.

Other activities for the week included painting parking lines and stenciling parking limits on spaces at Roosevelt Center, removing broken asphalt at the community center and delivering to a recycling plant, spreading sand on an oil spill on Cherrywood Lane, replacing landscaping in the median of Mandan

Road at Glen Oaks, rebuilding the engine on one police car and the brake system on another; replacing a parking restriction sign destroyed by an automobile accident, cutting back zinnias and daffodil foliage, renovating the interior of the Youth Center and cleaning storm drains and underpasses.
